LOCAL NEWS.

If you see it in the Townsman, it's news to be relied upon; if it is news and so, you'll see it in the Townsman.

Thanksgiving next Thursday.

Brainerd Cummings is confined to the house by illness.

The Reading lodge of Workmen will visit Lincoln lodge next Monday evening.

Frank M. Smith attended the Firemen's ball at Haverhill, Monday evening.

The Woman's Home Missionary society discussed "Our Indians" at the last meeting, Tuesday afternoon.

The choir of St. Augustine's church are planning to run a minstrel show in the Town hall about the first of January.

Mrs. Banister's next talk will be on "Food." It will occur at 244 South Main street, next Wednesday at 3 p. m.

"The Amusement Question" is the subject of the next Sunday evening talk by Rev. F. A. Wilson at the Free church.

The Young Ladies' society of Christian Workers will meet with Miss Jenkins on Main street, Tuesday, Nov. 27, at 4 o'clock.

The usual Thanksgiving services will be held in the South church, Thursday, at 10.30. Professor Moore will preach the sermon.

At the probate court at Salem, Monday, administration was granted on the estates of the late James P. Butterfield and Joseph W. Smith, Jr.

Prof. E. Y. Hincks, of Andover Theological seminary, preached at the Lawrence street church last Sunday morning in exchange with the pastor.

George T. Eaton spoke at the evening service of the First Congregational church, Methuen, on "As the hours go by at Northfield," last Sunday evening.

John A. Ellis of Brooklyn, N. Y., was buried in Andover from the residence of Miss Mary Ballard yesterday afternoon. Rev. F. R. Shipman conducted the service.

Andover members of the Kings' Daughters attended the convention of the Merrimack Valley league, at Centre church, Haverhill, Tuesday afternoon and evening.

The annual Thanksgiving sale of dainties for the table will be held at Christ Church Parish House next Tuesday afternoon and evening. Tea will be served in the afternoon, and it is hoped that this will be not only a sale, but a pleasant social occasion.

Among those who are to attend the Yale-Harvard game at New Haven tomorrow are George A. Higgins, William H. Higgins, Frank E. Gleason, William Ledwell, Michael J. Crowley, William C. Crowley, Alfred Kaiser, Alfred L. Ripley, George F. Smith, Prof. Charles H. Forbes, H. Bradford Lewis, Daniel Collins and George Morse.

A reader of the Townsman attended a service at the First Baptist church, Haverhill, a few weeks ago, and was much attracted by a fine memorial window recently placed there. The window is a stained glass copy of Raphael's famous Madonna and Child, with the cherub faces beneath. It is the work of the Boston artist, Lewis B. Flagg, a former Andover boy, and is considered one of the choicest examples of glass decorations in this vicinity. The window is a gift of Mrs. Francis H. Foster of this town, in honor of her parents, the late Jackson B. and Mary B. Swift.

Miss Mary Crockett was much surprised last Saturday upon going to the residence of Mrs. Batcheller on Maple avenue to meet a friend and spend the evening to find about 50 friends to greet her instead of one. Irving Batcheller, in behalf of the company, presented her with a beautiful and costly lamp, taking Miss Crockett so completely by surprise with the gift that she was only able to express her thanks. Games and dancing were indulged in during the evening. Refreshments were served and it was late before the party was over. Among those present were some from Lynn, Ballardvale, Lawrence, North Andover and Andover.

The Phillips Academy Mirror for November has just been issued from the office of the Andover Press. Following the style of the first issue, it's cover contains an illustration this month of the P. A. campus and school building. Several of the articles are very good, especially under "The Kaleidoscope." The contents are as follows: "My Midsummer Nap," L. H. Galloway; "How Mamma Saved the Game," Harold Dodge; "The Yacht Race," Albert T. Gould; "Number 9," R. J. Dodd; "The Kaleidoscope," "Thanksgiving," "Owed to My Tailor," "The Yaptown Centre Chronicle," "The Mucker and the Tiger," "Heart to Heart Talks with Great Men," "The Horrible Example," Editorials; Book Reviews; Leaves from Phillips Ivy; Exchanges.

Arthur Bliss, Druggist

H. P. Noyes is ill with typhoid fever.

The Andover band orchestra furnished music at the Old Liners' ball in Methuen Friday night.

Jack Belknap was taken into the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity at Dartmouth last Monday night.

Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, will speak at the Seminary Chapel this evening instead of last night as previously announced.

Arthur Stanley Pease, Harvard '03, of this place, is placed among the first group of scholars at Harvard for 1900-1901.

Henry McLawlin has moved from Elm street to 112 South Main street, the house owned by James E. Johnson, of Dorchester.

Barnett Rogers conducted a very successful auction sale at the Goldsmith estate in the West Parish last Saturday afternoon.

David O. Whitman has purchased from Miss Blanche Cummings of Boston, her property on Washington avenue, and will occupy the house.

Remember the Firemen's dance in the Town hall next Wednesday evening. A better time than ever is expected this year and the preparations are all completed. The Andover band orchestra will furnish music as usual.

Phillips academy will have a Thanksgiving recess of two days next week, Thursday and Friday. Abbot academy closes for Thanksgiving day. The public schools have Thursday and the remainder of the week.

It is almost certain that the Haverhill & Andover electric road will not be constructed this winter, as the hearing before the supreme court on the petition of Loring N. Farnum for an injunction against the H. & A. R. St. R. R. company has been postponed.

On and after Monday, November 19 Berkeley street and Andover cars will leave station for Andover at 5.45, 6.15, 6.45, 7.15 a. m., and every half hour until 12.15, then every fifteen minutes until 10.30 p. m.

Leave Andover Seminary for Lawrence—5.40, 6.15, 6.45, and every half hour until 12.15, then every fifteen minutes until 11.00 p. m.

On next Monday evening, Andover lodge, No. 230, I. O. O. F., will hold an interesting meeting. They will work the 2nd degree upon a candidate of their own and also upon one from Wauwinet lodge of North Andover, many members of which will probably be in attendance. It is also expected that the district deputy and suite will be present. Members of Andover lodge are requested to turn out in as large numbers as possible.

The following students in Phillips academy have earned the right to wear the Andover "A." Football: Collins, Levine, Weeks, Kinney, Matthews, Botchford, Cooley, Chase, Owsley, Reeves, Burke, Cotton, Sumner, Stoddard, Bissell, Barney, Manager Goodhue; baseball: Matthews, Mains, Wheeler, Burke, Stoddard, Hazenwinkle, track, Schick, Matthews, Cates, Botchford, Esser, Fallows, Kinney, McLaughlin; tennis: Larned and Gardener.

Will all the kind hearted people of Andover who have "worn out" rubber articles, no matter how old, of any description, boots, shoes, coats, bottles, sheets, stair carpeting, hose, etc., kindly donate them to the King's Daughters? George S. Cole, Chestnut street, has generously given permission to have a receptacle placed in his stable to receive such donations, and donors will please go directly there to leave their packages until Dec. 8. A team will call at the house if any who desire it will send a postal to Miss Burt or Miss Neal.

Peter Donovan has gone to New York to see the Horse Show.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell and son of Hyde Park, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsay on Maple Avenue.

Geo. E. Hussey will enter the office of the Merrimack Mutual Fire Insurance company as assistant, about the first of December.

William C. Donald and Miss Alice Donald have left their home in Frye Village, to spend the winter at the home of Dr. Garland in Boston.

Handsome pantries were picked by George A. Christie of the Andover Press in his garden yesterday and brought into the office. He has others budded.

Henry A. Bodwell of Maple avenue is reported to have been appointed an inspector of mill machinery under the United States government, and that his success is shared by only four others.

New officers for the South church Boys' brigade company are: Captain, Roderick Cannon; lieutenant, Wendell Wright; 1st, 2nd and third sergeants, Robert Hutchison, William Hardy, Everett Lundgren; corporals, James Abbott, Jesse Billington, Charles Wilcox.

The Very Rev. W. H. Fremantle, D. D., Dean of Ripon, Yorkshire, England, will preach in Christ church next Sunday morning. Dean Fremantle is one of the most prominent preachers in the Church of England and a leader of the Broad Church movement there.

Mrs. Jeanette Robinson Murphy will give her musical lecture at the November club house, Friday evening, Dec. 7th, at 7.45. Tickets at 50 each will be for sale at the Andover Bookstore on and after Wednesday, Nov. 28th.

Several football games will take place in town on Thanksgiving day. The Blackstockings will play a picked eleven from town at 9 o'clock, and after this game another local team will contest with the strong Groveland team. On the cricket grounds, a game of association football will be played in the morning.

Jack Belknap has been playing quarterback on the Dartmouth college eleven this fall. He participated in both the Cornell and Brown games. Although light, Belknap is a plucky, sandy player, a fierce and sure tackler and one who uses considerable judgment in running the team. He was quarterback on Exeter last year. As a result of his good playing he was given "D".

Birthday parties are the children's delight and little Lizzie Whittemore of 41 Washington avenue, who celebrated yesterday her 11th natal day, gave much pleasure to fifteen or twenty little school and playmates by her "party." The affair was arranged in a large measure by Lizzie's grandmother, assisted by her mother, the two joining to get up such an occasion as would enable the children to have a glorious good time. They gathered at four and the hands of the clock traversed the circle of the clock's face four times before the last "good nights" were called back and forth between the young hostess and her guests. There were the usual games and such forms of merry-making as cause the minutes to fairly fly. Then the supper should not be forgotten for was not that one of the most important features of the whole affair? There was the sparkling birthday cake and an array of edibles that made the young people glad they had been "invited." Miss Lizzie received a goodly number of gifts from her little friends who did not forget that it was her birthday. When the breaking up time came it was a tired but happy lot which betook themselves to their respective domiciles.

David J., the eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Donovan, died last Monday evening about 7.15 o'clock. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon. Interment in the Catholic cemetery.

There was a good attendance at the Y. P. S. C. E. "Box Social" held in the church vestry last Friday evening. The main feature of the evening was the guessing contest over the several boxes. By request of the social committee, William Shaw conducted this part of the exercises, and much fun and merriment was occasioned by some of the sagacious and wild guesses. Light refreshments were served and a fine time was enjoyed by all.

The Congregational church was filled to overflowing last Sunday evening, to listen to a temperance address by J. B. Lewis of Boston, assisted by the following musicians: Miss Louise S. Allard, piano; Miss Elsie C. Davis, violin; Miss Ethel Edgcomb, cornet; Albert J. Stevens, clarinet. The special music was well rendered and added much to the service. Mr. Lewis gave a very powerful temperance address, entitled "A Call to Duty." He showed very vividly the danger threatening this country through strong drink, also the great power of the liquor organization. He made a strong plea for a true religion, a hallowed Sabbath, and a pure and upright citizenship. At the close of the service over 200 persons attended the temperance pledge.

Mrs. Arthur F. Belcher returned Monday to her home in Portland, Me.

Mrs. Eugene Holden, of Lawrence, spent Sunday with relatives in the Vale.

William H. Welch put an Arbutus furnace into St. Joseph's church last week.

We shall expect to hear the wedding bells ringing in the near future, as an engagement ring came to town this week.

Miss Catherine Hickey of Lowell, and Miss Josephine Haggerty of Boston, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Haggerty.

The second number in the Bradlee course of entertainments was given Wednesday evening, consisting of a lecture by W. Hinton White on "The Paris Exposition, 1900," illustrated with the stereopticon. The views thrown on the canvases were very fine and realistic. Mr. White's vivid descriptions and explanations very visibly impressed his audience and could not but arouse new desires and ambitions for seeing and knowing more about the advance and progress that is being made in the world.

About 50, including friends from Andover, attended the Epworth League social held at the home of Charles Pearson, Andover street, last Thursday evening. The following program was presented in a very acceptable manner. Vocal solo, Charles Pearson; recitation, Miss Pearl Nason; recitation, Miss Queen Chukay; recitation, Miss M. Louise Hammond; recitation, Edward Newcomb. Games followed and refreshments were served. A royal good time was enjoyed by all present.

Home Study Courses.

A notable new feature offered by the Boston Journal.

The Boston Journal has begun the publication in its Sunday edition and in every evening edition, of the daily Journal through each week of a daily feature of most marked value and decided interest. It is known as the Boston Journal Home Study Courses, and is designed to furnish readers with daily material of an educational nature, written and arranged by authorities on each subject treated. The whole series is under the direction of E. Benjamin Andrews, L.L.D., formerly president of Brown University.

The different subjects will be assigned to different days, and the courses will extend over a period of three months. The topics and the authority on each, are as follows:

Our Birds at Home, James Speed

The Makers of the Nation, Clark Mills Brink, Ph. D.

Nature Studies for Grown Folk, Allen Walton Gould, A. M.

Correct English and How to Use It, Josephine Turk Baker

Some Phases of Teaching, Herbert Miller, A. M.

CRICKET LEAGUE MEETING

Effort To Increase the League to an Eight Club Organization. Trophies for Next Season.

A meeting of the Merrimack Valley Cricket league was held at the Brunswick hotel, Lawrence, last Saturday evening. Pres. J. W. Harrison presided and each of the six clubs—Andover, Bunting, Lawrence, Merrimack, Methuen and Mohair—was fully represented. The principal item of business was the proposed extension of the league, the Lynn Wanderers, North Billerica and Zion (Lowell) cricket clubs having made formal application for membership. A motion to make the league an eight club organization instead of a six as at present constituted was made by one of the Bunting representatives. The six club league was strongly advocated by the Mohair representatives and also by the other Bunting delegate. On a division, the Mohairs (2), the Andovers (2), and Bunting (1) voted for the six club league, total 5; while Merrimack (2), Lawrence (2), Methuen (2), Bunting (1) voted for the eight club organization, total 8. The eight club league was accordingly voted, but a motion to reconsider left the matter undecided. Delegates from the Lynn Wanderers and North Billerica clubs were present and stated their cases. A curious feature of the vote is that the Lawrence C. C. is only in favor of extension if the Lynn Wanderers be admitted.

It was reported at the meeting that designs for the cup presented to the league for competition by Col. Butler Ames, of Lowell, were under consideration by the committee. Mr. Putnam, of Lowell, it was announced, offered a cup to be awarded to the batsman having the best average for the season of 1901. The Sunday Telegram of Lowell has again offered a pennant for competition. It is also expected that Senator Currier, of Methuen, will offer a cup similar to the one he gave last year.

Proposed changes in the by-laws were considered and several passed. To prevent any chance of rowdiness or indecent language on the field a motion was unanimously passed that any player guilty of indecent or outrageous conduct on the field would be fined or suspended as the league saw fit. During the past season a Lowell player made himself particularly obnoxious and the new by-law will probably work a change. The other important change was that a suitable trophy be presented to the winning club, the champion team to play a team picked from the league at the close of the league season on the former's grounds, the trophy to be presented at the game.

The changes in counting points and of arranging league games before all others were left over till next meeting.

The meeting was very harmonious and a prosperous season seems in store.

Vespers Won Golf Match.

At Tyng's Island last Saturday the Andover Golf club team was defeated by the Vesper Golf club. Temporary putting greens, small and rough, made the medal scores relatively high.

Commons Team Champion.

The Commons football eleven won the street team championship of Phillips street by defeating School street 10 to 0 Wednesday afternoon, in the final game of the series. Commons was considerably heavier and won by the superiority of her backs, of which Matthews was the bright, particular star. Commons made a touchdown in each half. The tendency of her men to get offside and hold lost her the ball many yards and the chance to score several times.

Captain Weeks, of the first team, coached School street, and Levine, Matthews, Botchford and Burke assisted the Commons team.

A DOUBLE ANNIVERSARY.

Tuesday evening a pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Currier, 96 Franklin street, when Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Harper of Boston, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Currier, observed the tenth anniversary of their marriage. This date is also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Currier, and the event is observed each year by both couples. Last year the day was spent in Boston at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harper. Last evening a number of invited friends were present and the evening was passed most pleasantly in social diversions. Supper was served during the evening. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward K. Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Mark J. Fuller, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Hancom. Both couples have many friends who wish them many happy returns from the pleasant occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper were former residents of Lawrence but removed to Boston about five years ago, where Mr. Harper holds a responsible position with the old city Trust company.

FOURTH ANNUAL CONCERT

Lawrence Street Church Choir Gives a Concert of High-Class Music.

The Lawrence Street Church choir held their fourth annual concert festival in the church auditorium Monday night. The program was an excellent one and was well appreciated by the audience. The Arlington Male Quartet of Haverhill assisted in the program.

Each number was well received and heartily applauded. The numbers were rendered in a manner that stamped each of the participants, artists. In brief the affair was a brilliant success for the choir and the audience were delighted.

The program was opened by the overture to William Tell, masterfully rendered by Organist Albert I. Couch. During the rendition of the overture Mr. Couch proved himself master of his subject and showed his appreciation and broad study.

The second number was by the church quartet. The setting was well rendered and was accorded a burst of applause.

The third number was a tenor solo by Mr. Morrison who is a member of both the Arlington and the Lawrence Street church quartets. The solo was especially pleasing and Mr. Morrison showed an excellent range and a sweet timbre voice.

The fourth number was rendered by the Arlington quartet and Mrs. Goodrich. "Hie thee shallop" was well rendered and received good applause.

Mrs. Anderson of the Lawrence Street Church quartet next rendered an alto solo, "Ah, thou comest." The selection was particularly adapted to Mrs. Anderson's voice, and after the first few bars she had won the pleasure of the audience.

The next number was by the Arlington quartet and Mrs. Goodrich. "The Star" and a Hunting Song. The latter selection was rather more favored and both were well rendered.

Mr. Burt then sang a baritone solo, "O, thou sublime sunset even star," from Tannhauser and was accorded a burst of applause.

The eighth number was by Mrs. Anderson and the Arlington quartet. The selection, "Mourning's supplication" was well rendered and well appreciated.

The ninth number was a soprano solo by Mrs. Goodrich. The favor of the audience was soon won and Mrs. Goodrich, though handicapped by a cold, as she concluded, left the audience well pleased.

The tenth and concluding number was one of the best on the program, "May gentle sleep fall o'er thee," was delightfully rendered by the church quartet.

The members of the Lawrence street quartet are: Charlotte Dean Goodrich, soprano; Emma Stoddard Anderson, contralto; Charles E. Morrison, tenor; and director, Arthur M. Burt, bass. Albert J. Couch will officiate as organist.

The complete program follows:

"Overture to William Tell," Rossini

Mr. Couch.

"Over the Dark Blue Waters," Weber

Lawrence Street Quartet.

Aria, "Radiant Aida," (Aida) Verdi

Mr. Morrison.

Quintette "Hie the Shallop," Kucken

Mrs. Goodrich and Arlington Quartet.

Aria, "Ah, Thou Comest," (Anna Bolena) Donizetti

Mrs. Anderson.

Quartet:

a "The Star," (Polish Folk song) Kremer

b "Hunting Song," Mueller

Aria, "O thou sublime sunset evening star," (Tannhauser) Wagner

Mr. Burt.

Quintette, "Supplication," Mohring

Mrs. Anderson and Arlington Quartet.

Aria "Here must he Smugglers Dwell," (Carmen) Bizet

Mrs. Goodrich.

Quartet "May gentle sleep fall o'er thee," (Martha) Flotow

Lawrence Street Quartet.

CHAMBERLAIN'S PAIN BALM

(CURES OTHERS, WHY NOT YOU?)

My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well—Adolph L. Millett, Manchester, N. H. For sale by Arthur Bliss, Andover, C. H. Shattuck, Ballardvale.

MOLLOY REPORTED SAFE.

It is reported on good authority that Lieutenant Molloy, formerly Sergeant-Major Molloy, who was said to be missing, is alive and well. His whereabouts are said to have been ascertained and the Telegram is informed that the welcome news was received last night from official sources.

Molloy, it is said, has gone farther to the front and is free and enjoying good health.

Caller—Land sakes! How late it is, Mrs. Suburb—O, you mustn't go by that clock. It's two hours fast.

Caller—Why don't you set it right? Mrs. Suburb—Horror, no! Don't touch it. That's the clock my husband catches trains by.—(New York Weekly).

SKIN DISEASES

When the excretory organs fail to carry off the waste material from the system, there is an abnormal accumulation of effete matter which poisons and clogs the blood, and it becomes sour and acid.

This poison is carried through the general circulation to all parts of the body, and upon reaching the skin surface there is redness and eruption, and by certain peculiarities we recognize Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, and many other skin troubles, more or less severe.

While the skin is the seat of irritation, the real disease is in the blood. Medicated lotions and powders may allay the itching and burning, but never cure, no matter how long and faithfully continued, and the condition is often aggravated and skin permanently injured by their use.

The disease is more than skin deep; the entire circulation is poisoned

The many preparations of arsenic, mercury, potash, etc., not only do not cure skin diseases, but soon ruin the digestion and break down the constitution.

S. S. S., nature's own remedy, made of roots, herbs and barks, of great purifying and tonic properties, quickly and effectively cures blood and skin troubles, because it goes direct to the root of the disease and stimulates and restores normal healthy action to the different organs, cleanses and enriches the blood, and thus relieves the system of all poisonous secretions.

S. S. S. cures permanently because it leaves none of the original poison to re-form in the blood and cause a fresh attack.

Healthy blood is necessary to preserve that clear, smooth skin and beautiful complexion so much desired by all. S. S. S. can be relied upon with certainty to keep the blood in perfect order. It has been curing blood and skin diseases for half a century; no other medicine can show such a record.

S. S. S. contains no poisonous minerals—it is purely vegetable and harmless.

Our medical department is in charge of physicians of large experience in treating blood and skin diseases who will take pleasure in aiding by their advice and direction who desire it. Write fully and freely about your case; your letters are held in strict confidence. We make no charge whatever for this service. Our book on Blood and Skin Diseases will be sent free upon application.

A Short Lay Sermon.

JOHN VIII: 1 to 11.

"I: So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her."

How full the world is of all manner of sinners! How rare is the test of the guileless throwing the first stone! Today the town of Andover is stirred over the stories of several very appalling phases of immorality and law breaking. Men and women in different walks of life are charged with crimes and of fences, which if proven would make wide misery in scores of Andover households, and bring the guilty to great shame and serious punishment. On every side are seen the uplifted hands, ready to throw the stones, and the air is filled with voices crying out for punishment.

"Let him that is guileless throw the first stone."

When these words were first uttered every hand dropped to the side, every voice was stilled, and one by one the accusers left the accused, and an erring woman was changed into a forgiven follower.

If one half of the stories which have passed from lip to lip in this community during the past week were true, one half of the community would today be standing with stones in hands aimed at the other half.

"Let the guileless throw the first stone." At once the story of one poor unfortunate is found to be the magnified foundation for the misery of a score. The truth is not to be told here, but the moral is not to be passed by. If an ounce of charity had been used in the tale bearing where a ton of slander has been sown, many lives which are today temporarily clouded would be as clear as the noonday sun.

"Let him that is guileless throw the first stone."

but first and foremost, let him be sure that he has a right to throw it, and let him be sure that he has the right man or woman for a target.

The Liquor Question in Andover.

The citizens of Andover are very properly aroused over the violation of the liquor law. Some of them are endeavoring to find the remedy in a petition to the selectmen urging them to more vigorous action, and others had looked upon the recent case against an alleged offender as a long step toward greater restriction. The petition is still circulating, and its efficacy is still problematical; the "case" has come to naught for the present, and the query of those who had expected a different result is, what can be done next.

We are free to say that the writer is not in sympathy with the general proposition of prohibition, and that he believes that just as long as men drink and liquor is made, just so long will it be sold. The town of Andover, however, votes by a large majority every year, that the law to govern this community shall be the law against selling intoxicants. It is doubtful if one in a hundred of the citizens who thus votes, has any idea that such a vote will make Andover a strictly prohibition town. Not a single one probably has so little appreciation of humanity as to believe that such a vote will entirely stop drinking in our midst.

But every citizen of Andover has a right to expect that such a vote will take away from the town every appearance of a liquor nuisance, and control, within the law, the traffic.

Four places in Andover, through their business as druggists, would have the right to sell intoxicating liquors if they had fulfilled the requirements of the state laws which govern their business. These state laws require a license from the state board of pharmacy and a license from the selectmen of the town. The former is an endorsement as to the standing as a pharmacist, the latter is an endorsement of the local standing as a business man.

With this as a basis, it will not be very difficult for a large proportion of the population of Andover to decide how loosely the law has been obeyed. In fact there has been a greater or less evasion of the law for many years.

How can it be stopped? Clearly the first step toward the stopping of it is for the selectmen to insist that every pharmacist of Andover shall be properly licensed, by the state board of pharmacy first, by themselves afterwards. The next step is to insist that the registration book required by law shall be strictly conducted, and carefully and frequently inspected by the proper officers. And the next and final step is for the chief of police to push to the very fullest extent of the law every offender.

We do not argue that this will stop liquor selling in Andover, but we do argue that it will decrease law breaking by just as many laws complied with that are now broken. The systematic oversight thus established would do much to make the selling less offensive, and the nuisance side of the business would be largely abated. The question may be asked why the selectmen have not heretofore required licenses from the druggists, but we believe they would be freed from any criticism on this score if the real reasons were made known. In fact they seem to have had the best of reasons for their past course in dealing with this question, and it is only the abuse of their confidence, by certain well known parties, which now makes a change imperative.

Regarding the trial of one of the druggists reported fully elsewhere, it seems now to be a closed incident, yet it will be a matter for regret if the notoriety given to the principal in the case shall fail to teach him that Andover likes a law abiding citizen in deed as well as in appearance. He is neither a subject for censure nor sympathy at this time. The court has decided the one, and public sentiment will decide the other. Recent events show that it is one thing to believe a thing to be so, and a very different thing to prove it in a court of law; but the same events have shown just as clearly that an acquittal by a judge is often a conviction by a jury made up of an outraged public which takes its law from the book of morals and not from Blackstone.

The public demands nothing of its druggists that it does not demand from every citizen, that they shall one and all be law abiding, helpful citizens, desirous of promoting the best life of the town, and it is noteworthy that they have always been such men with very rare recent exceptions. Their peculiar business may make this task more difficult than it is for the baker or butcher, but that the public has never been harsh in judgment past events have abundantly proven.

Editorial Cinders.

One of the officers of the new Andover Gas company complains that the Townsman is prejudiced on the gas question and for that reason declined to give any information in regard to the formation of the company. If the Townsman has any prejudice, it is every time in favor of a local interest, the good of the public at large being properly considered. We are not aware that any judgment has been given by the Townsman on the merits of the present problem, but it would be very difficult for any man to look at this proposition as it now exists and see any good reason for endorsing the Andover company unless he had some pecuniary interest in its promotion.

The Andover company may have some better reason than has yet been presented why it should be preferred in the question of gas rights in this town, and we sincerely hope it has, but so far it looks to be very much more for the interest of its promoters than it is for the interest of gas users in Andover.

There are a good many Andover citizens who remember with pleasure the sturdy young fellow who was full of good works while a student at Phillips, and who is now such a power in the religious world, Rev. Chas. M. Sheldon. He will speak in the chapel this evening, and is bound to be worth hearing both for old acquaintance and for his own sake.

Rescued From the Flames.

William J. Burns rescued the four little children of Mr. and Mrs. J. Andrew Murphy from a possible death by burning last evening about six o'clock. The family reside over Chin Wing's laundry in the square, and last evening Mrs. Murphy left the four children alone upon the floor while she went down stairs to take in her clothes from the line. All of the children were little bits of things.

Somehow the curtains at the windows caught fire and burned rapidly, soon filling the room with a dense smoke. May Hodges, who lives next door, discovered the fire and ran down stairs for assistance.

Mr. Burns was the earliest one on the scene. He reached the room with some difficulty owing to the dense smoke and darkness, but with great presence of mind removed the four children to a place of safety outside, then returned and pulled down the curtains and extinguished the flames before assistance arrived.

An alarm of fire was rung in at the engine house, but the firemen found nothing to do when they arrived. The little ones were entirely unconscious of their danger and were seated on the floor only a few feet from the blaze, which if allowed to burn any longer, would have made a serious conflagration, as the building was of wood and closely joined to several other wooden buildings. Only the promptness of Mr. Burns saved a bad fire.

It Would be a Good Thing.

An effort is being made by some of our leading citizens to induce the management of the Boston & Maine R. R. to allow the express, which now runs direct from Lawrence to Boston at 9 a. m., to stop at Andover for passengers. This will be a great convenience to local people, as there is now no fast train between the hours of 8.21 and 10.28, and it is to be hoped that Andover may have the proposed train.

SALE VERY SUCCESSFUL.

Whatsoever Society of the Free Church Entertained Many People Last Night.

The young ladies of the Whatsoever society at the Free Church conducted last evening one of the most successful sales ever given in the vestry. Between two and three hundred people were present and their money was spent freely in purchasing of the various articles for sale.

Arranged around the sides of the room were the tables, all of which were surrounded by generous patrons most of the time. On entering, one came first to the fancy table trimmed with blue and white and laden with articles that brought out one's pocketbook almost involuntarily. Mrs. J. Newton Cole was in charge, assisted by Mrs. W. H. Faulkner and Miss Margaret McDermitt.

Next came the vegetable table with a heap of potatoes, beets, turnips and the like. In one corner, enclosed in a crate, gracefully reposed a little porker, donated by George W. Harnden and sold early in the evening. Piggy was a missing article last night and was still missing this morning because, as its new owner placed him in a shed outside and some one kindly allowed the little squealer to make his escape. The vegetable table was trimmed with pink. Evergreen interlaced with corn and strung apples covered the frame work raised above the table. Mrs. Milo H. Gould and Mrs. Alexander Dear were in charge here.

Miss Mary Scott presided at the lemonade stand and Mrs. Herbert Goff, assisted by Miss Alice Cox, at the dainty cocoa table. At the flower table, Miss Upton was in charge with Miss Mary Foster, assisting and with Elsie Saunders as flower girl. Part of the plants and flowers were furnished by the ladies of the church, while the remainder came from a green house. Nearly everything was disposed of early in the evening. This corner was constructed to represent a rustic arbor, by means of a frame work and a hemlock bough covering.

The candy and cake table was trimmed with red, white and blue. It was in charge of Mrs. David Lindsay, Miss Cecilia Kydd and Miss Edith Clark.

Ice cream was for sale in the smaller vestries and Mrs. Stephen Jackson presided there, assisted by Miss Nellie Russell and a corps of young misses as follows: Maggie Hutcheson, Edith Morse, Mary Ramsey, Mary Findlay, Mary Dick, Lizzie Gordon, Marion Saunders, Isabelle Dick, Bertha Coutts, Jean Dundas and Johanna Guthrie.

The entertainment consisted of selections by the Free church orchestra, and of a very laughable and cleverly acted farce, entitled "Rubber Boots," with the following cast:

Pauline, Miss Helen Ritchie
Sophie, Miss Mary Foster
Lou, Miss Gertrude Jackson
Tramp, J. Newton Cole

Much of the evening's success was due to the efforts of Mrs. Frederick B. Goff and the remaining members of the committee of arrangements.

GAS PROMOTERS MEET

Andover Gas Light Company Transacts Important Business.

A meeting of the subscribers and directors of the Andover Gas Light company was held at George W. Foster's office in the Bank building yesterday afternoon. The company was organized about twelve years ago contemporaneously with the Andover Electric Light company, although they were entirely separate. Names of several local and foreign capitalists appeared on the lists of subscribers and boards of directors of both companies, however.

From J. W. Barnard, the principal Andover promoter of the Andover Gas Light company, it is understood that two new directors were elected at the meeting, one of whom was Mr. Barnard, the other, William H. Jowett. From other sources it is learned that the entire board of directors as it now stands is president, George C. Davis of Boston, Mr. Robinson of Winchester, formerly with the Thomson-Houston company, and the principal promoters of the Andover Electric Light company, J. W. Barnard, Walter S. Donald and William H. Jowett. It was learned from the same source that the subscribers present were as follows: J. W. Barnard, W. H. Coleman, George W. Foster, J. H. Campion, George A. Higgins, B. Frank Smith, Albert S. Manning, John L. Smith, George C. Davis, president of the company, and Mr. Robinson. Of these, Mr. Manning, one of the original subscribers, withdrew soon after the meeting opened.

The three last named gentlemen were the only members of the original five directors present. One of the other two, George F. Holt, has passed away, and the other was thought to be Mr. Donald, although there seems to be some doubt about it as there were no records on hand to refer to. Mr. Smith withdrew from the board although urged strongly to remain on. It is understood that a new set of by-laws were adopted and that the directors elected George W. Foster clerk of the board.

The matter of capitalization was talked over and it was thought by Mr. Robinson that $20,000 would be enough. Others thought this amount too small, and Mr. Davis said finally that it might take $40,000 or $45,000 before they got through. The question of laying pipes was discussed and the cost was placed by one gentleman at between $2,000 and $3,000 per mile. The statement was made that more than one company could not get a franchise to open up the streets in town, but it was doubted by some present.

It is understood that the Lawrence Gas company has guaranteed to furnish $1 gas if they get the rights they ask for here. At the meeting of the Andover Gas Light company, it is reported that the claim was made that the Andover company could not afford to furnish gas as cheaply, and the reply was made that a better quality of gas would be supplied and that naturally the company would be obliged to get a little more for it.

From those who are in a position to know, the probabilities are that it would cost to establish a gas plant in Andover nearly if not quite $50,000, and that the Lawrence Gas company cannot pipe the town, put in a gasometer, etc., at much less than $30,000.

Obituaries.

REV. DR. CHARLES H. SEYMOUR.

Rev. Dr. Charles H. Seymour, of South Groveland, died in the Hale hospital in Haverhill, Tuesday evening after a long illness. He was born in Watertown, Conn., May 15, 1829, and was graduated from Trinity college, Hartford, in 1857 with honors. He taught in various places, including Hampden, West Hartford, and Litchfield, Conn.

In 1855, Dr. Seymour was chosen principal of the Pynchard Free school in Andover, and the same year was ordained deacon in the Episcopal church. He was a rector of Trinity parish in Haverhill in 1858, the following year being ordained to the priesthood. After remaining there until 1868, he went to Dubuque, Ia., where he preached for some time. Later he became president of Griswold college in Davenport, Ia. Mr. Seymour returned once more to the East, being settled as rector at Melrose and finally at St. James church in So. Groveland. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Daniels of New York.

ALANSON A. FLINT.

Older residents of town will learn with regret of the sudden death of Alanson A. Flint, formerly of West Parish, Andover, and late of Austin, Nevada, on October 30, aged 68 years.

While engaged in repairing a building which had been recently gutted by fire, his son noticed the wall moving, and jumping out of the way himself, called for his father to do likewise. Mr. Flint heard the warning too late, was buried beneath the falling debris, and his life crushed out.

He was one of the pioneers of Austin, arriving there in 1869, and his funeral in the Masonic and Odd Fellows' hall was largely attended by those who honoring him in life, would pay this last tribute of respect.

He is survived by two sons; also by a twin brother, Addison A., of Sacramento, Cal.; a brother, Chas. W., of Lawrence, Mass., and a sister and brother, Maria C. and Henry K., of this town.

CHARLES HENABRY.

The death of Charles Henabry was a sad fatality, resulting from a boys' game of football in Andover a week ago Saturday. Charlie, fifteen years of age, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Henabry of Maple avenue, broke his arm in a game with some of his young mates and did not tell his parents of the fact at once. In a few days he became ill so that he was obliged to tell his parents of the injury. Physicians were summoned who advised his removal to the hospital. He was taken to the Massachusetts General in Boston where everything possible was done, but blood poisoning had set in and his life could not be saved. The boy died Friday afternoon and the body was later brought to Andover.

A bright boy, very popular with his companions, his death, occurring so suddenly and unexpectedly as the result of an accident which, if treated in time, would not have been dangerous, seems a particularly sad one.

Besides his parents, he is survived by three brothers and a sister. The funeral was held from St. Augustine's church Monday afternoon, and interment followed in the Catholic cemetery.

RICHARD M. FINDLAY

After a tedious illness, Richard M. Findlay passed quietly away at his home on Elm street yesterday morning about 1 o'clock. Up to a few days before his death, Mr. Findlay was able to be out and to walk down town.

Richard was the sixth of nine children of John M. and Catherine A. Findlay. His parents were Scotch people who came to Rockport, Mass., in 1842. There Richard was born on the 6th of November, 1850. When he was ten years of age he came with his parents, brothers and sisters to Andover, where he has since resided.

After he had received an education in the public schools of this town, he entered his father's fish market, remaining with him until the latter left Andover. The market was then conducted by two brothers, Richard and William, for several years. Later, the brothers went to work at the Tye Rubber company, William still being employed there and Richard having remained as long as his health allowed him.

He married Miss Fannie Cummerford of Andover, about ten years ago. Mr. Findlay had a great fondness for a quiet home life, and his wife had the qualities which made her a patient, faithful helpmate.

Besides his wife he leaves four sisters, Mrs. W. B. Allen of Andover, Mrs. James A. Roach of North Andover, Mrs. Mary Batchford of Linekin, Me., and Miss Catherine Findlay of New Haven, Conn., also a brother, William F., of Andover.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from his late home on Elm street, Rev. F. A. Wilson of the Free church, officiating. Burial will be in the family lot at Spring Grove cemetery.

WEST PARISH.

Mrs. J. Warren Moor is seriously ill with inflammation of the bowels.

The Ladies' Seamen's Friend society of the West church held a social last evening. The society was entertained by Mrs. S. H. Boutwell. Much fun was created by the experiences encountered by the ladies in earning a dollar and related in rhymes, some of which were very good.

DRUGGIST IN COURT.

William A. Allen Accused of Illegal Sale of Liquor and Maintaining Nuisance. Discharged by Judge Poor.

The trial of William A. Allen of the firm of E. M. and W. A. Allen, registered pharmacists, in the Musgrove block, who was accused of the illegal sale of liquor on Nov. 10th, and of maintaining a liquor nuisance, from the first day of June, 1900 to the 14th day of November, 1900, took place before Judge Poor in the lower town hall last Friday afternoon. The case was called at half past three, at which time the court room was well filled with interested citizens who got wind of the trial, and many Academy boys besides, frequenters of the Allens' store.

The complaint in the case was the Watch and Ward society of Boston, represented by Hon. B. B. Johnson, counsel for the society, and Evan E. Davies, assistant agent of the New England Watch and Ward society. This makes the second time in twenty-four years that the society has taken action in a case of like nature, the other occasion being that against the defendant in Friday's trial, on May 26, 1896, when Mr. Allen was found guilty of illegal sale and fined $100. He also lost, at that time, his druggist's license which was revoked by the Massachusetts board of pharmacy for six months. The complaint in this instance as in the other, was made at the request of prominent citizens of Andover.

Attorney Walter Coulson of the firm of Coulson & Coulson, of Lawrence, was counsel for the defendant. Mr. Coulson thought that only one charge should be brought against the defendant and asked that the complaint of maintaining a nuisance be quashed but the judge ruled that it stand.

Chief Frye was the first witness summoned and he identified the defendant.

Herbert L. Hovey, who said that he was 25 years old, a resident of Somerville and employed as an investigator by the Watch and Ward society, was the next witness. He said that on the tenth of November he came to Andover with Mr. Webber and visited the store of E. M. and W. A. Allen. Found Mr. Allen behind cigar counter; purchased some cigars of him. Asked him if he could get some whiskey. Mr. Allen said, "I guess so," and went into the back part of the store, soon returning with a one-half pint bottle, which he handed to the clerk. The latter took it, wrapped it up and received a half dollar which he rang in, returning fifteen cents in change. Did not register, was not asked to and did not see any book. Said he was in store about five minutes and did not see Edward M. Allen. A bottle labelled, "Mayflower," containing one-half pint whiskey, produced as evidence and claimed to be the bottle purchased by Mr. Hovey of defendant.

Cross-examined by the counsel for the defence, witness said that he was a total abstainer but could distinguish, or thought he could, between liquors, by touching his tongue to them. Said he arrived in Andover in forenoon, then went to Lawrence, made purchases in several stores, later returned to Andover, arriving about a quarter to two. After walking about the square for a few moments, went into Allen's between 2 o'clock and five minutes after. On Tuesday, the 13th, he was in the store again and made another purchase of Mr. Allen, not liquor this time. On Saturday, after leaving Allen's he went into one store and tried to go into another. Identified William A. Allen very positively as the one who sold him the liquor. Said the clerk was shorter and had darker hair and moustache.

Mr. Coulson said that Chief Frye pointed out William Allen whom he came in, to the witness. Said he denied it, saying that witness pointed out defendant to him the moment he entered the room.

Gilman A. Webber, of Columbus Ave., Boston, an advertising solicitor, sometimes engaged as private investigator for the Watch and Ward society, was next called. He corroborated Mr. Hovey's testimony. Agent Davies identified the bottle as the one secured by Mr. Hovey in Andover, closing the case for the prosecution.

The defendant's counsel asked that the judge find that there was no evidence for the alleged nuisance, as only casual sale was claimed. After considerable discussion between the counsels, and Judge Poor, during which a number of cases were cited, the judge ruled that one sale might constitute a nuisance.

William A. Allen, the defendant, was the next witness. The burden of his testimony was that he left his store about ten minutes to two to go up on the hill to see the football game. Said he never saw Mr. Hovey or Mr. Webber before, either on Saturday or Tuesday.

Cross examined by Mr. Johnson, said his clerk was a little shorter than himself but that his moustache was about the same color. Denied having any liquor in his store, similar to that produced as evidence, or any other liquor put up in that style bottle with or without labels, at any time since the first of

A Musical Event.

The Department of Music of the November club takes pleasure in announcing a series of three musical evenings.

The first in the series will take place on Monday, November 26, at half after seven at the club house. The attraction offered for that evening will be a Lecture-Recital by Carl Armbruster of London, who will lecture upon the songs of Robert Schumann and Robert Franz, while Miss Pauline Cramer will sing a dozen or more songs in illustration.

Mr. Armbruster had recently given a course of lectures in the Lowell Institute course in Boston on Wagner's works, meeting with an enthusiastic reception, and warmest praise from the critics. Mr. Armbruster is an accomplished musician, lecturer and conductor. He was Hans Richter's assistant, conductor of the Wagner concerts from '82 to '84, has conducted opera at the Royal, Drury Lane, and Covent Garden Theatres in London. Miss Cramer has a beautiful, pure dramatic soprano voice and her singing is of a noble and scholarly order.

The two other concerts will take place in January. At one of these, a quartette arranged by Miss Lena Little will sing "The Persian Garden" by Liza Lehmann. This work is a musical setting of quatrains from the "Rubaiyat" of Omar Khayyam.

At the last concert, Harold Nason, recently returned from Paris, will play selections from classic and modern composers. Mr. Nason will be assisted by Miss Jolivet, violinist, who played with marked artistic success, this autumn, before large audiences at Queen's hall, London.

The dates for the January concerts will be definitely given later. Tickets for the course of three concerts two dollars, single tickets seventy-five cents each, to be obtained at the Bookstore and at the hall on the evening of the concerts.

Attractions of the Union Fair.

The attraction at the Union fair of the G. A. R., W. R. C., and S. of V. on Thursday evening, Dec. 13, will be Major R. H. Hendershot, the original drummer boy of the Rappahannock, and his son, the most wonderful drummer and fifer in America. They will furnish music and solos such as the citizens of this town have never before heard. Their playing is wonderful. Everybody should see and hear them. Major Hendershot enlisted in the U. S. Army as a drummer boy in the 9th Michigan Infantry, at Detroit, Mich., in 1861, before he was twelve years of age. Those who have heard the Major's imitation and explanation of a battle in progress say that those two prices alone are worth more than the price of admission. Many interesting souvenirs will be displayed by Major Hendershot. On that evening the Boys' Brigade company of the Free church will give an exhibition drill of fancy evolutions.

STRUCK BY A GEAR.

Patrick J. Conlin, master m chine at the Everett mills, had a narrow escape from death Wednesday forenoon. While he was walking from one building to another, a gear, weighing 26 pounds (ft about 25 feet and 8 in k him in the head.

Mr. Conlin fell to the ground and witnesses of the accident expected to find the man dead when they reached him. Mr. Conlin did not even lose consciousness, however, and physicians who were summoned found that there was no injury other than two bad scalp wounds. It is miraculous that Conlin's skull was not fractured. He was removed to his house, 88 Garden street, and at 2 o'clock was reported to be resting comfortably.

A singular circumstance is that Mr. Conlin was struck in the head in almost similar manner just 20 years ago. Conlin's injuries were dressed by Drs. Howe, Manahan and Sullivan.

A GOOD CATCH.

The police department made a clever capture Wednesday in the arrest of Samuel H. Joshi who, it is alleged, secured $50 from James J. Hughes by means of a bogus check, or rather, note. The arrest was made in Springfield by Inspector John Sheehan, and was the result of a very clever piece of detective work.

Joshi is a commercial traveller and is well known here, having made many trips to this city. It was because of his acquaintance with Lawrence men, who supposed he was honest, that he was able to secure the money as he did. He tried to get his sight draft cashed at Hotel Brunswick, at Dan A. Donahoe's, and was finally successful at Reid & Hughes. Mr. Hughes paying $50 upon the statement of a well known local man that the fellow was "all right." In a few days the draft came back pronounced worthless, and the police were notified of the fraud.

The draft was dated at Boston, Nov. 12, and called for the payment at sight of $50 to the order of George Harris for value received and the amount to be charged to the account of J. J. Nathan in the Continental bank of Boston.

The names are fictitious and consequently the charge of forgery cannot be maintained. Joshi will therefore be charged with larceny and securing money under false pretences. The arrest of Joshi was brought about by his alleged attentions to certain chorus girls travelling with the "Cat Girl" company. The company was in this city at the time Joshi operated here and the police learned that some of the chorus girls were boasting of having a splendid time at the expense of a man who had lots of money. The description of the man with the money resembled that of the man with the worthless check, and Inspector Sheehan has been away for three days, following the "Cat Girl" troupe, and in Springfield today he caught his man.

Marshal O'Sullivan believes that Joshi has been operating his scheme in other places besides Lawrence.

Druggist in Court.

Last June. Denied having any labels with name of intoxicating liquor on them. Did not know what wholesaler sold "Mayflower" brand of whiskey or where bottles of that description were made. Denied selling liquor to a young man on the 8th of November, or to a man on 11th of October, or a pint bottle to a woman in the month of October. Denied selling any liquor since June 1, 1900, except for medicinal purposes. Only allowed to sell alcohol for which people are required to sign on purchasing. Said there might have been a thousand people in his store November 10th, that his sales amounted to about $70.

As a matter of fact were they not more than twice as much?

"No sir."

"Didn't you tell some one that they were over $200?"

"No sir."

Thought he might have been in the store Tuesday afternoon but was not sure.

George A. Brown, the next witness for defence, said William A. Allen witnessed the Andover-Exeter game from his carriage and that he got into the carriage about 2 o'clock. Cross-examined, said he thought Mr. Allen arrived a few minutes after the game started but did not know when the game started although he thought it was about 2 o'clock.

Peter J. Donovan, the next witness said practically the same thing. The defendant took his (Donovan's) place in the carriage a little after two o'clock, and that the game had begun.

Joseph Myerscough said he was with the defendant until the latter left him in the square about five minutes to two to take a car up on the hill. Did not know exactly when the car went but was sure that it was not later than five minutes to two. He started a few minutes later, walked up and got there before the game commenced. This closed the testimony for the defence.

Attorney Coulson asked that both cases be quashed. The evidence clearly showed that the defendant could not have been in the store when the witnesses for prosecution claimed to have obtained the liquor.

Mr. Johnson said that the Watch and Ward society did not need any defence in his hands from the sneers and jibes of anybody. The society did not pay any attention to liquor cases, except on special invitation. They were brought here at the request of prominent citizens of this town. He said that the witnesses for the prosecution had reason to be exact as that was their business. He pointed out a mark on the bottom of the bottle, "L. A. Co.," and said from that the society was able to determine who made the bottles, who put up the whiskey and whether Mr. Allen ever bought any of that brand or not.

Judge Poor summed up the case by saying, "It is a case where two men, both strangers, identify positively William A. Allen as the man who sold them the liquor, while the defense claim an alibi, supporting their statement with the word of Mr. Allen and of three well known and reputable witnesses, while the inference is also suggested that it might have been purchased from the clerk. In consideration of the fact that there is some doubt and for the reason that if I find the defendant guilty, it will be the second offense, and mean a term in prison, I find him not guilty on both charges and he is accordingly discharged."

The decision was somewhat of a surprise to many of the Andover citizens present who had followed the testimony carefully.

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern which is not afraid to be generous. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over a million trial bottles and have the satisfaction of knowing it has cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, La Grippe and all Throat, Chest and Lung diseases are surely cured by it. Call on Arthur Bliss, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

TRIBUTE TO FR. BARRY.

Rev. Charles G. Adams of Mr. Adams Mission Home attended the funeral of the Rev. Father Barry. Mr. Adams was personally acquainted with Fr. Barry, and he truly was a father to all. Mr. Adams lived in Concord where Fr. Barry first came there 35 years ago. Mr. Adams was in the liquor and ale business at that time. Mr. Adams while in the business took a pledge for one year from the hands of Fr. Barry. It was one of the kindest, most genial, wholehearted men that ever lived. "In after years," said Mr. Adams, "I left liquor business and became a Christian and had been granted a preacher's license, and had entered into the mission's work, and I met Father Barry who said in his kindly way, 'God bless you,' and patting me on the shoulder said: 'I wish you God-speed in your noble work.' Fr. Barry has always had a very warm place in my heart; we shall see him down here, but his sweet spirit is still with us, his splendid life and work has, I believe, helped us mould more lives than one eternally alone will tell. Mr. Adams has a picture of Father Barry that was given to him while at the funeral which he thinks a great deal of.

KING'S DAUGHTERS CONVEENE.

The Merrimack Valley League of King's Daughters held a convention at Centre Church, Main street, Haverhill, Mass., Tuesday afternoon and evening, Nov. 20, 1900.

The afternoon service began at three, and evening at 7 p. m. There was a large attendance. Dr. Julia Morton Plummer of Boston delivered an address to the convention in the afternoon, and Mrs. F. E. Clarke of Auburndale in the evening.

At 5:30 p. m. a supper was served by the thoughtful and Do-What-We-Can circles—proceeds to be used for King's Daughters work.

Each leader or representative of a circle responded to the roll call giving the number of members of her circle, also the name of delegate for the ensuing year, and other matters of interest to the league. A prayer service was held at 2:30.

METHUEN.

E. F. Bragdon is quite ill at his home on Lowell road.

Mrs. Nathan Bailey is recovering from her recent illness.

Andrew Lawton is now occupying his new home in Inglewood.

Edward E. Lyman has returned from a trip to Pennsylvania.

Mrs. D. F. Connelly of Pelham street is confined to her home by illness.

Mrs. Benj. M. Hall will spend the winter with her son Milton F. Hall in Natick.

Sarah H. Dearborn has purchased the estate of C. W. H. Andrews on Lowell street.

W. R. Dyson of this town is taking a course of study in connection with the school of theology.

Alvar W. Clark of this town, has been appointed an associate member of the Tufts college choir as a tenor.

Mr. Griffith is having a cottage house erected on Haverhill street. Contractor James H. Lyons is doing the work.

It is rumored that a private dancing party will be held in the small hall in Odd Fellows building, on Thanksgiving eve.

The Riversides of the town defeated the Andovers on the Nevins field at football Saturday afternoon by a score of 6 to 0.

The Busy Workers of the Universalist church are planning to hold a sale in their hall on Hampshire street Friday evening, Nov. 30.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Osgood of Blue Hill, Me., have been visiting their daughter Mrs. George W. Frederick on Park street this week.

A new dynamo to furnish 600 lights is being installed in the Methuen Co., mill by Osgood Bros. Another will be added in the spring.

C. Walter Douglas of this town has been drawn to serve on the jury at the civil session of the supreme court in Salem in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Davis of Hampshire street are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter. The stranger arrived Sunday.

J. Haskell Gordon has returned to this town from Chicago, having resided three years with his son Newton F. Gordon who died last month.

Mrs. W. H. McGonagle of Duluth, Minn., is visiting with her father, Deacon S. G. Sargent on Central street. She will remain here several weeks.

Last week the Universalist church was broken into and the books and Bibles scattered about, some damage being done. The miscreants have not yet been found.

A book of valuation, authorized by vote of the town at town meeting will soon be issued. It will give the valuation and location of every piece of real estate in town.

There will be a harvest concert at the Congregational church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in place of the regular service. The concert is to be given by the Sunday school.

The work of renovating the house of F. H. Fernald which has recently been removed to Pleasant street, will begin in a day or two. Contractor C. H. Emerson will do the work.

George W. Sillaway of this town has resigned his position with the Warren J. Jones' Granite works in South Lawrence to re-enter the employ of the Glencoe Granite company of Quincy.

There will be a special meeting of the Methuen Odd Fellows' association in Odd Fellows hall next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Business of importance will come before the meeting and a full attendance of the stockholders is desired.

Geo. H. Butters of this town is a member of the Charlestown bowling team which competes in the "Swell League" composed of clubs in Boston and vicinity. Last year Mr. Butters bowled with the "Old Dorchesterers" and made an excellent showing throughout the season. His record will be watched with interest by Methuen's many bowling enthusiasts.

The bridges on the Lowell road have been completed and the road has been put in general good repair. The work that has been done in this place has made a great improvement. The road has been built up and made more nearly level while the street has been made much wider than formerly, giving ample room for the passage of teams and the electric cars, without danger of overturning as formerly. There is now an excellent road all the way to Lowell.

There is another collection of photographs on exhibition at the Nevins Memorial library. The display includes over 40 photographs of China, most of them being illustrations of Peking and the surrounding regions. These views are all very interesting. Views are given of all the important buildings and places in these cities, and a number of photographs of groups of natives give one a good idea of the peculiar appearance of the people. Besides these views of China there are about 60 views of Louisiana. These too, are quite interesting. This collection is loaned to the Library Art club by the Southern Pacific Railroad. Attached to most of the pictures is an explanatory note, describing the view, and giving other information. The views will remain on exhibition two or three weeks.

The work of renovating the Nevins homestead on Hampshire street is progressing. This residence is to be made an ideal one, the house being fitted up with all the latest improvements and in the most elaborate and tasteful manner. Contractor Chas. Hutchins has charge of the work. Representatives of the Murdock Tile company of Boston are now at work putting the tiles in place. There are several fire places all of which are to be made of the best tiles. The homestead contains five bathrooms, all of which are to be finished up in the most artistic manner, with expensive tile floors and casings. The private bath room is especially elaborate, being finished in pink tiles, and all the trimmings being of silver, with the best material obtainable. There will be open plumbing throughout the house. This work is being done by Forbes and Sons of Lawrence. The house has been plastered and the work of putting on the finishing touches is about to begin.

"Look Before You Leap."

If a dealer attempts to sell you a substitute when you ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla, his only object is to make more profit on the substitute, which is always inferior and unsatisfactory. Therefore be sure to get Hood's.

Scrofula—"For years I had scrofula sores on my back. I took many medicines without avail and thought I could not be cured. Then I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and it entirely cured me. My health is now perfect. I am a trained nurse, and recommend Hood's for all blood diseases." J. D. Torrey, 46 W. Main Street, Fredonia, N. Y.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS.

A meeting of the school board was held Monday night at 7.30 o'clock at its rooms in the Tenney building. Miss Nellie Hodgson was elected a regular assistant at the West school where she has been temporarily engaged for some weeks past. The report on the school census was presented by Truant Officer Gordon. It showed an increase of pupils in all the schools in town with one or two exceptions. The West school is unusually crowded, and some action must necessarily be taken next spring relative to erecting another building. Where such a structure could be most advantageously located is at present a most perplexing problem to the committee. After the approval of bills and discussion of matters of minor importance the meeting adjourned shortly after 10 o'clock.

The poultry fair which the Methuen Grange are planning to hold in January promises to be a great success if the plans of the committee can be carried out. Not only will there be an exhibition of the choicest fowls in this town, but an exhibition of pigeons, cats, dogs and other animals, including the Belgian hare will be made. The banquet hall in the Odd Fellows block has been secured, it is understood, and will be fitted up in fine style for the exhibition. The committee is having some difficulty in securing a professional judge for the fair, on the dates decided upon, and it may be that the date of the fair will have to be changed on this account. Prizes are to be awarded for the best exhibition in each class. There are some fine specimens of farm stock in the town, and the grangers will have the best of this on exhibition at their fair.

David Crowell, a well known and highly respected resident of this town, passed away Tuesday morning at nine o'clock at his home on Pelham street. He had been for some time a sufferer from an incurable disease, so that his death was not unexpected. Mr. Crowell was not far from 72 years old at the time of his death. He was born Jan. 29, 1839, in Windham, N. H., and spent his early life there. He was at one time overseer of the poor farm at Reading, and later lived in Rhode Island, and Connecticut. From the latter state, he removed to Methuen, 14 years ago, where he has resided ever since. He was a member of the Columbia lodge I. O. O. F., of Stoneham and of the Methuen Grange. Patrons of Husbandry. He was a regular attendant at the local Baptist church until his health would not permit him to leave his home. He was a man of sterling qualities, living a true and upright life, and winning the love as well as respect of all who knew him. Besides a wife he leaves two sons, Bert C. of this town, and Charles of Lowell; two brothers, Joseph of Windham, N. H., and Steven of this town, and two sisters, Mrs. James Campbell of Westbury, R. I., and Mrs. Charles Fegan of Haverhill. Byron E. Crowell of the law firm of Mahoney and Crowell of Lawrence, was his nephew. The funeral will be held Friday at 12 o'clock noon from the late home of the deceased 376 Pelham street.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Mifflin will close the Bush next week and return to Boston for the winter.

Mrs. John Fish and Mrs. Thomas R. Fletcher have been visiting Mrs. Haskell in Manchester-by-the-Sea.

Miss Florence Meloon of Effingham, has been the guest of her brother Arthur Meloon at the residence of B. C. Smith.

The Meloon eleven will adopt a few gems of strategy in the practice game this evening under the direction of Manager Adams.

Mrs. Charles H. Farnham, Mrs. Laura M. Phipps and Mrs. Orrin N. Foster will serve as the social committee for the Charitable Union.

Harvest home was observed at St. Paul's church, Sunday morning at the 10:30 o'clock service. Special music was rendered by the choir.

Mrs. George N. Cross, wife of Principal Cross of Robinson seminary has been under surgical treatment at Carney hospital, Boston, and is now improving in condition.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hayes will represent the local organization at the meeting of the State Grange at Worcester, Dec. 11, having been appointed by Master Harry C. Foster.

At the afternoon session of the Charitable union Wednesday afternoon four members were admitted. Mrs. F. P. Berry, Mr. Foster and Miss Foster and Mrs. Perkins. About 40 were present at the evening social and supper in charge of Mrs. W. W. Chickering, Mrs. Murch and Mrs. D. W. Sutcliffe.

Until the Supreme court decides on an application for an injunction against the Andover and Haverhill street railroad, made by Loring Farnum work on the line will be suspended. It seems that various agencies for and against the railroad are at work. This fact alone will create all the stronger desire on the part of the people in the various towns along the route to see the road advanced to a successful issue, particularly if a successful issue is entered into the tactics of causing the work to be delayed.

In the high school course this evening, Prof. Geo. N. Cross of Exeter, N. H., and an ex-principal of the school will give his new illustrated lecture upon "Bonnie Scotland." The views depict quite realistically the departure of the steamship from New York the first sight of land, the sail up the Clyde, Glasgow, a visit to Ayr, a ramble about the "Ladies of the Lake Country," Strirling, Vale of Montrose, Hawthornes, Roslin and its associations in masonry, Abbotsford, Melrose and Dryburgh, Edinburgh, and many other of the notable rocks and crannies of Scotland. The lecture promises to be one of the most interesting of the course and one that all can appreciate.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by Arthur Bliss, Druggist.

Street Railway Hearing.

The selectmen gave a hearing in the town hall Friday evening in regard to petition of the Lawrence, Groves and Ipswich electric railroads asking for trackage privileges in town. The petition was for a right of way through Andover street near the junction of Good street, through Andover, Salem and Dade to Boxford line and also from Dade street to a point near the residence of Gen. W. J. Dale, over private land to Foster street, near the Boston and Maine railroad thence through Foster street to the new road to the Boxford line. The promoters were represented by Atty. John P. S. Mahony, who gave as reasons for the franchise being granted, that it was proposed to be run in connection with the Salem and Lawrence street railroad which he thought would develop later. If the road as proposed was operated it would develop a large land area and bring small towns in closer proximity socially and commercially and also in touch with the cities round about. To allow the franchise for the company to build a line would be something along the line of progress and improvement. He hoped that the board would grant a franchise to the petitioners with a reasonable length of time in which to construct the road. This closed the argument for the petitioners. John H. Sutton appeared as a remonstrant. He strongly opposed the scheme and hoped and prayed that the franchise would not be granted because the contractor, Mr. Maxwell and associates, had not demonstrated their ability to build a road. Neither had they kept their pledges and promises in regard to electric road matters. In fact Middleman and Danvers had refused franchises to them. Attorney Mahony replied that Mr. Sutton was interested in any other electric road. The reply was "No." Has anybody asked you to come here in opposition to this road? "No," replied Mr. Sutton. Do you not believe electric roads an improvement rather than an injury to towns? "Yes, in some localities." Does the proposed route pass at any point any property which you own? "Not that I am aware of." William W. Phipps inquired as to the particular location of tracks and afterward objected to the road as being a decided hindrance to occupants of the road in the winter time because they kept the road bare of snow in places in the winter. He also objected to locations in the middle of the road. Edward A. Fuller objected and remonstrated against the road going through private lands. But would not object to the road passing in front of his house on the highway. W. H. Hayes inquired if it was necessary to mention private land in the petition. He was answered by Attorney Mahony that it was necessary to outline the petition in full. Selectman Osmond inquired as to the status of the franchise in the other towns. Mr. Maxwell replied that a vote of acceptance has been passed by the selectmen of Boxford and Grovesland and the promise of Jewell had been given. Selectman Clark asked which route the Boxford authorities had given to which Mr. Maxwell replied: Jenkins street had been selected but it would probably be changed as soon as the road was opened. The hearing was closed and the matter taken under advisement.

ANDOVER NEWS

Guild Notes.

Judging by the reports made at the meeting of the directors in November, the Guild house is already a busy place. The sewing school, the recitation club, the kitchen garden, the boys' club and preparations for a dolls sale are in progress. Singing, cooking and dress-making classes are perfecting their plans and other work will start later.

The registry for nurses has received a license from the town authorities and Mrs. Andrews will gladly give information.

Additional sheets, pillow-slips, and nightgowns for men and women, are required to render the emergency closet of value to the physicians of the town.

The Annual Harvest Festival will be held at Christ church next Wednesday evening, the day before Thanksgiving, at 7:30 P. M. Contributions are asked of vegetables, fruit, flowers, groceries, reading matter or money; all which will be sent to the Lawrence Hospital. Articles may be left during the afternoon at the Parish House.

The attention of the public is called to the sale of dolls to be held at the Guild house, Saturday p. m., Dec. 8th. A fine opportunity to buy a Christmas gift at a reasonable price.

Dressmaking class was opened on Wednesday evening at 7:30 promptly. Terms $1.00, paid in advance, for five lessons. The class will continue as long as the interest warrants its continuance.

Black Stockings 6: Tigers 0.

The Black Stockings of Andover and the Tigers, Methuen, met in a fierce game of football at Glen Forest Saturday. The game resulted in a victory for the Black Stockings by a score of 6 to 0. It was a severe blow to the Methuen team as they were very confident of defeating their old rivals. The game started at 2:30. The Black Stockings won the toss and kicked off to Ayer who advanced the ball eight yards. The Tigers then punted to Wilcox who dropped the ball, and the Methuen boys got it again. They punted again, and Wilcox did the same thing. Then Methuen tried rushing the ball but it was no use. The Andover boys held like a stone wall, and so the ball went to the Andover team. Stuart went six yards through left tackle, and so on the ball was carried down the field. C. Lundren made 15 yds. around left end. Then Stuart went through right tackle and set the ball down behind the goal. Hardy kicked a goal; score, Black Stockings 6: Tigers 0. In the second half the Tigers kicked the ball on the Black Stockings three yard line, where they were held for downs. This was the only time the goal was in danger. Stuart of the Andover team was the star of the game. He took up the Methuen line in fine style, making as much as eight yards through the tackle and guards; his tackling was fine, while his punting was one of the features of the game. Abbott, the two Lundrens and Collins played well for the Black Stockings, while Ayer, Duhamel and Harris excelled for the Tigers. The line-up:

Chances for the Scholars.

An opportunity is offered to the public school scholars of Andover to obtain some new books before Christmas through the Local History contest of the Lawrence Telegram. To stimulate education, the Telegram has just closed an educational contest, by which ten young men obtained scholarships in their chosen study in one of the greatest correspondence schools in the country. Now they want to obtain stories on the local history of Lawrence, Methuen, Andover and North Andover, and to that end they ask the scholars of these places to contribute stories upon some historical event which has occurred in their town.

There is a wealth of material for stories of such nature to be found in this vicinity. Andover scholars might tell how "America" was written and where. They can find plenty of interesting facts by a little effort, with which to weave some interesting historical stories of Andover.

For the best story of any event touching the history of Lawrence, Methuen, Andover or North Andover, written by a public school scholar in either one of these places, the Telegram will give an order upon the Reid & Hughes' book department for ($10) ten dollars' worth of books.

For the second best, an order for ($7) seven dollars' worth of books.

For the third best, an order for ($5) five dollars' worth of books.

For the fourth best, an order for ($3) three dollars' worth of books.

For the fifth best, an order for ($2) two dollars' worth of books.

For the sixth best, an order for books to the amount of one dollar each.

RULES.

The writer must be a regular scholar in one of the public schools of either Lawrence, Andover, North Andover or Methuen.

The subject must be based upon some historic event connected with one of the four towns.

The manuscript must be written on one side of the paper, neatly and legibly and the English and punctuation will be considered in placing the contestants.

The contributions must be mailed to or delivered at the Telegram office on or before Saturday, December 8, addressed to "Local History Editor."

The judges will be three of the leading educators of Lawrence and vicinity, and the prizes will be awarded as soon as possible after all manuscripts have been read.

Publication of the articles will begin on the Monday following the award, and the twenty best ones will be published on alternate days.

FRYE VILLAGE.

Work is being pushed along rapidly now at the public bath and swimming tank being constructed by Paul Hannegan.

Miss Harriet G. Dodson is visiting Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Long at Sanford, Conn. for two weeks. She will also be the guest of her brother, Fred S. Dodson, of Yale, at the Harvard-Yale game at New Haven tomorrow.

By the will of Mary Collins Dwyer of Nahant $1,000 is bequeathed to the St. John's Catholic seminary at Brighton.

TEACHING A KID.

"Papa," said Sammy Snags, "this story says that the mutineers were put in irons."
"Yes, Sammy."
"But, papa?"
"Well, Sammy?"
"Why do they iron prisoners?"
"To take the starch out of them, Sammy."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Tele.

and WINDOW SLIDE.

Keeps out Dust, Wind and Cold.—Snow and Water Proof.

Unlike Rubber Weather Strips that soon rot and wear out, this is made of metal that will not rust or decay, and will last a lifetime. Windows fitted with these Strips can be raised and lowered much easier, as it is metal sliding on metal, and will not stick as wood does. Stops all rattling and will never get out of order. It is also invisible. It takes the place of storm windows. We will call with model and give estimate on receipt of card. A competent agent wanted for Andover.

A photographer at Eldon had made a dozen cartes for a gentleman living at Walkersward. When about to send them off he discovered that he had forgotten the name of the client. What was he to do?

After he had long but uselessly racked his brain, he at length uttered a sigh of relief. He hummed one of the likenesses on the envelope and wrote underneath: "To the above gentleman in Walkersward." The cartes were duly delivered.—Belgique.
